Official Presenting Sponsor

We are incredibly proud to announce that in its first year as a festival partner, HBO is our Official Presenting Sponsor and Audience Awards Sponsor. We look forward to a great festival working with HBO to bring queer cinema to Seattleites and beyond.

Presenting Sponsors

Comcast Cable, also in its first year as a major festival supporter, is an Official Media Partner with the festival. Thanks to their support the Seattle Lesbian & Gay Film Festival trailer is being screened on Comcast channels across the country.

Advocate Magazine is a National Media Sponsor and has been a sponsor since 1999.

A Presenting Sponsor since 2001, Cinerama is a major venue for the festival.

Premier Sponsors

A key hospitality partner since 1999, Brasa restaurant is the new host of the festival's Closing Night party, to be held October 21st.

As lead caterer for the Opening Night party to be held October 15th, this is Herban Feast Catering's first year as a sponsor.

KEXP Community Radio is the sponsor of the Opening Night party, October 15th.

Orbitz is a major festival Travel Partner responsible for helping bring many special guests to the festival.

As a first-year Premier and Auto Sponsor, Sandburg Volvo is making a name for itself as a valued festival supporter.

The Stranger is a keystone to the festival, providing premier coverage and advertising since 1996.

An important festival sponsor since 1998, Absolut Vodka continues its generous support of the LGBT and Arts Community in the Seattle area.

Tablet Magazine is a fourth year sponsor and provides Seattle and beyond with underground and alternative news, features, and arts coverage on a monthly basis.

Vulcan, Inc is the parent organization of Presenting Sponsor Cinerama and continues its support as a 2004 Presenting Sponsor.

Festival Sponsors

Alaska Airlines is a valued transportation partner to the festival.

As the largest gay publication in the Northwest, the Seattle Gay News provides the festival with extensive advertising and coverage.

In its second year as a sponsor, Seattle's Crowne Plaza Hotel many guests will have a comfortable stay during the festival.

Consolidated Works is the official venue of the festival's Opening Night party.

Three Dollar Bill is a member of the GSBA, a local chamber of commerce and directory, that provides valuable information to the local LGBT community.

Girly Press has been a sponsor since 1998 and has printed literally thousands of materials for the festival.

JetBlue Airways is a valued air transportation partner to the festival.

KODAK provides the film stock for the Seattle Lesbian & Gay Festival trailer and the Super8 Program. In 2004, they will also provide film stock as an award to the Best Local Film (jury).

A sponsor since 1998, Scarecrow Video shares our love of film to the nth degree.

Thanks to SuperGraphics our festival artwork can be seen on street banners in locations throughout Capitol Hill.

2004 Festival ads can currently be seen inside West Coast editions of The New York Times

The W Hotel provides cutting-edge accommodations for festival guests in the heart of downtown Seattle.

The Warwick Hotel, conveniently located directly across the street from Cinerama, is the site of the official festival hospitality suite in 2004

The festival receives expert legal counsel from Thompson Gipe, P.C.

The SLGFF would also like to thank Seattle Magazine, Here! TV, Oppenheimer Cine Rental LLC, and The L Word
